
TIMOTHY HIGGINSON

Call: 1977

Tim has built up an extensive practice over a number of years, the main areas of which concern disputes in these areas:

- Commercial and Chancery
- Civil Fraud and Asset Tracing
- Professional Negligence (principally, solicitors, barristers, auditors/accountants and bankers)
- Banking and Securities
- Equity and Trusts
- Sports Claims
- Partnership and LLP
- Insolvency
- Regulatory

This has inevitably involved vast experience in the interlocutory relief and arbitration spheres.

Most recent cases include:

- A very high value breach of warranty claim, in which he represented the Defendant, and which was discontinued at an early stage.
- A multi-million pound breach of warranty claim following a share sale agreement, which was successfully compromised.
- A substantial solicitors' negligence action, in which he appeared for the Claimant and obtained summary judgment and very substantial damages.
- A dispute concerning a league cricket club and its future participation in its County League.
- A contractual claim against a very prominent financial services LLP on behalf of the Claimant, which resulted in a very substantial financial settlement.

Additionally, he has been an appointed arbitrator in commercial disputes and qualified with ADR Chambers, in the mid-1990's, as an accredited mediator.

He has been a regular contributor on a variety of sports-related matters on commercial and BBC radio.
