Littleton Chambers: Modern Slavery Statement

Littleton Chambers takes a zero-tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery and is committed to operating ethically and with integrity throughout all aspects of our work. We strive to maintain our professional workspace that make our clients proud.

As of October 2015, the UK Government put forward the Modern Slavery Act, to address all forms of human trafficking and slavery. This includes coerced labour, compulsory labour, deprivation of personal freedom, or facilitating the movement of people for exploitation. Section 54 requires large organisations to undertake a slavery and human trafficking statement, to be updated each financial year.

The Littleton Business

Littleton has many policies set out to ensure we deliver strong performances throughout our organisation. These also include policies to prevent acts of modern slavery and human trafficking. We have policies on Anti Bribery, Complaints, Diversity, Equal Opportunities, Grievance, Personal Harassment, Recruitment, Right to Work, Whistleblowing and Work Internship. We fully support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights, including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act of 2015 in the United Kingdom.

Littleton's Supplier Code of Conduct requires suppliers to ensure that workers are not treated in harsh or inhumane ways, or in any way that is contrary to UK law relating to modern slavery and human trafficking. We also take steps to ensure that our suppliers are aware of our policies, and we expect them to adhere to our standards.
